

Local Rule 1-3 - Sanctions for Errors as to Form

The court may strike from the record any paper that does not comply with the rules governing the form of papers filed with the court, such as rules that regulate paper size or the number of copies to be filed or that require a special designation in the caption. The court may also sanction an attorney or party who files a non-compliant paper.